After reviewing any amendment to your registration statement and the information you provide in response to these comments, we may have additional comments. Unless we note otherwise, our references to prior comments are to comments in our April 5, 2021 letter.

Projected Financial Information, page 92

7. We note your disclosure on page 95 that the financial projections are based on a variety of operational assumptions, including the number of battery cells sold and the average sales price and that key assumptions impacting the forecast include projected cost of material and manufacturing, research and development, selling, general and administrative expenses, capital expenditures and asset financing, among others.

Please revise to describe such estimates and assumptions with greater specificity and quantify where practicable.

8. We note your disclosure that the projections on page 93 were prepared by Enovix. Please also include financial projections and assumptions prepared by RSVAC's Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Considerations of the Business Combination, page 127

9. It appears from your revisions in response to comment 6 that you do not represent that the merger will be a taxable transaction. As a result, please file a tax opinion by amendment and include the opinion in the exhibit index. If counsel elects to file a short form tax opinion, both the opinion and the information in the joint proxy statement/prospectus must state clearly that the discussion in the joint proxy statement/prospectus constitutes counsel's opinion. Please revise your prospectus disclosure to provide a firm conclusion regarding treatment of the transaction under Section 368 and remove language stating that it is intended that certain material tax consequences will apply.

Refer to Item 601(b)(8) of Regulation S-K and to Section III of Staff Legal Bulletin No. 19 for guidance.

Information About Enovix, page 175

10. We note your response to comment 26 of our prior letter. Please revise to clarify the term of your Service Revenue Contracts, the time period to reach certain milestones and the termination rights of the parties.
